A Raggle Taggle Tale

A clown gets kicked out of the Circus; when he complains, he gets a rag-cloth thrown in his face...

*When he tries to throw it angrily back, it comes alive. The clown helps the rag-cloth take shape. The rag-cloth likes it, and tries to stand on its new legs, and its new arms, and its head!
It wants a nose, too - the clown's!*

The clown has to set boundaries, so that there can be a healthy relationship, despite differences in age and size!

It is all about courage, friendship, standing up for yourself, and for others, engaging with and acknowledging others...
